The entry above is extracted from the California section of the FT 400 Top Financial Advisers report.

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LIMITED 2017 The FT 400 was developed in collaboration with Ignites Research, a subsidiary of the FT thatprovides specialized content on asset management. To qualify for the list, advisers had to have 10 years of experience and at least $300 million in assets under management (AUM). The FT then invited a list of just under 1,000 advisors to complete a survey used to obtain more information on the advisors practices. 400 qualified advisers were then scored on six attributes: AUM, AUM growth rate, compliance record, experience, industry certifications and online accessibility. The ranking may not be representative of any one client's experience, and is not indicative of future performance. Neither Raymond James nor any of its Financial Advisors practices are for this savard/ratine. The FT is not affiliated with Raymond Iames.
